Dental Health Month contest winners

Ithaca, Stanton, St. Johns- Mid-Michigan District Health Department's Oral Health Coordinator, Shelley Treynor, celebrated Dental Health Month by holding a coloring contest and an essay contest for Montcalm County elementary students.

The winner of the coloring contest was Lydia Moeggenberg, a second-grader from Howard City.

Students who entered the essay contest had to answer the question, "Why a healthy mouth is important to me." The winner of the essay contest was Noah Spohn, a fifth-grader from Sidney.

Moeggenberg and Spohn each won a gift basket with a $25 Meijer gift card, an electric toothbrush, additional dental health items and more.
