Health department announces winner of ACE Award

Left to right: Jennifer Stratton, Community Health and Education Supervisor; Jamie Sage, Public Health Nurse II; and Marcus Cheatham, Health Officer

Stanton- Mid-Michigan District Health Department (MMDHD) is pleased to announce that Jamie Sage, Public Health Nurse II, was chosen by her peers to receive the ACE (Achievement, Character, Excellence) Award for the period January-March, 2014.

Sage received multiple nominations and was described as someone who goes above and beyond what is expected, is a great team player, and wonderful to work with.

“Jamie provides outstanding care to our clients,” said Sage’s supervisor, Jennifer Stratton. “She works multiple programs and also provides feedback on possible ways to improve our services. She demonstrates great leadership skills and is a resource to clients and staff. Jamie is passionate about her job and is an asset to the agency.”

Congratulations, Jamie Sage, on winning the ACE Award, and thanks for going the extra mile!

Mid-Michigan District Health Department serves the residents of Clinton, Gratiot and Montcalm Counties.
