FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 9-23-14

Emerging drug trends event

Stanton- Community members are invited to attend one of two free emerging drug trends events in Gratiot County.

The first event will be held on October 1, 2014, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. at the Alma Library, located at 351 N. Court Avenue. The second event will be held on October 15, 2014, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. at the Ithaca Community Center, located at 120 N. Maple Street.

Discussion will be on the two most common drug problems in Gratiot County- prescription drug abuse and heroin.

The County's Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator and local law enforcement will be in attendance to answer questions, like:

- What are the dangers and side effects?
- Where can I dispose of prescription drugs?
- What behaviors should I look for in my teen?
- How big of a problem is this in Gratiot County?

This event is sponsored by: Child Advocacy, Community Mental Health, Gratiot County Substance Abuse Coalition, Mid-Michigan District Health Department, and MidMichigan Health.

Mid-Michigan District Health Department serves the residents of Clinton, Gratiot and Montcalm Counties.
